

Lesson Overview

In today's lesson, we're going to learn about self control. Most of us probably learn about self control when we don't have it and we get in trouble for being out of control. Like, when you get mad at your sibling for breaking your game and you hit them. Or, when your Mom catches you sneaking candy when you were told to wait until after dinner. Those are examples of a lack of self-control. When we have self-control, it means we're in charge of our thoughts, words and actions. We don't just react however we want. We remain calm and choose the right way to respond. Self-control is hard. It actually takes more strength to hold back than it does to just react in a moment. That's why God doesn't leave us to figure out self control on our own. He gives us a helper. The Bible says that when we trust in Jesus, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in our hearts. The Spirit helps us to say "Yes" to the things that honor God and "No" to the things that don't. In fact, the Bible says that the Holy Spirit will grow the fruit of self control as well as other fruits like joy, patience, and kindness in our hearts. So kids, next time you want to do something in anger, stop yourself and remember self-control. God will help you!

We make our parents mad and then they ground us or we say something mean and really hurt our friend's feelings. Self control helps us to stop and think and protects us from making decisions we'll regret. God wants to help us with self control so he sent us the Holy Spirit.)

Teacher instructions: Choose an activity for your classroom.

OPTION 1: SELF CONTROL TARGET GAME

Instructions:

- Before playing, tape a line on the floor and place 3 buckets (with point values attached) (page 5) at varying distances from the line. You may want to put something heavy in each bucket so it doesn't tip over. Divide the class into two teams. Have the kids line up behind the line.
- Give the first kids in line a bean bag. Have one team start by throwing the bean bag, trying to land it in one of the buckets. If they get it in a bucket, read them a scenario from below. See if they can come up with a way to react with self control to that situation. If they can, the team gets the points. Have teams alternate throwing.

Scenarios: (reuse if needed)

1. Your younger sibling ate your favorite candy you have been saving.
2. Your friend broke your favorite game.
3. You really want a cookie but your Mom said not until after dinner.
4. You're at Target and you really want a new backpack but your parents say "NO"
5. Your friend stepped on your toe.
6. Your teacher gave you a bad grade.
7. You left your homework at school and it's not done.

Supplies needed: Tape, 3 Buckets, Point Values template (pg. 5, 1 set per class) Bean Bag

OPTION 2: FRUITS OF THE SPIRIT WATERMELON CRAFT

Instructions:

- Give each kid a half of a paper plate and a Fruit template (page 6). Have them glue the watermelon on to the back, flat side of the plate.
- Have the kids color the bottom ring green to make it look like the outside of a watermelon. Then, have them color the rest pink or red. Then have them glue the words onto the watermelon however they like.
- As they work, remind the kids how important self control is in their lives. It helps them to have charge of their thoughts, words and actions. The Holy Spirit will help them to grow more self control.

Supplies needed: Paper plates (cut in half, 1 per kid), Fruit template (pg. 6, pre cut, 1 set per kid), Glue, Crayons
